

CAVEPM 2020 Schedule

June 1	Pre-conference workshop Fundamentals of Surveillance This workshop will cover design attributes and evaluation frameworks for different types of surveillance and will be led by Dr. Joanne Tataryn of the Public Health Agency of Canada, and Dr. Tasha Epp and Dr. Sarah Parker from the University of Saskatchewan.
June 2	CAVEPM Day 1 Plenary Sessions The changing face of surveillance in livestock production Dr. Cheryl Waldner, University of Saskatchewan https://researchers.usask.ca/cheryl-waldner/ History, epidemiology, and surveillance of influenza A virus in swine in the United States Dr. Phil Gauger, IOWA State University https://vetmed.iastate.edu/users/pcgauger Conference Dinner – Champêtre County (http://www.champetrecounty.com/)
June 3	CAVEPM Day 2 Plenary Sessions Surveillance for vector-borne diseases- our needs in a changing climate Nick Ogden, Public Health Agency of Canada Connecting data and information with people – overcoming challenges in the visualisation of specialist data Petra Muellner, EPI-Interactive https://www.epi-interactive.com/content/dr-petra-muellner
June 4-6	Post-conference Workshop Supercharging Epidemiology with IT Led by Drs. Uli and Dr. Petra Muellner of EPI-Interactive, this workshop will focus on how IT can support epidemiological activities from data collection to interactive data visualizations on the web.

