

WINTER | SPRING 2020

BRINGING ONE HEALTH TO LIFE

DISCUSSION SERIES

From bighorns to bats

The One Health lessons learned from 25 years in wildlife health

5-7:30 p.m.
Tuesday, January 7
Louis' Loft, U of S

FOOD: 5-5:30 p.m. | DISCUSSION: 5:30-7:30 p.m. | RSVP by Jan. 3

To RSVP, visit usask.ca/wcvm/ohle (click Events) | ohle.info@usask.ca

GUEST SPEAKER

Dr. Helen Schwantje

DVM, MSc

Wildlife Veterinarian, Ministry of Forests
Government of British Columbia

Besides guiding several key wildlife health programs in B.C., Dr. Schwantje has conducted many research studies on the diseases and issues affecting everything from caribou and bighorn sheep to grizzly bears and wolves.